ADVENT

"We are culturally formed to prepare more for the arrival of Santa than the coming of Jesus.

We leave out cookies and milk by the fireplace...

But setting out cookies and milk is not what preparing for Christ's arrival looks like; rather, we should be preparing our hearts and attentiveness."

— Rich Villodas

Teamwork Makes the Dream Work

MEERKAT

Use whatever gift you've received for the good of one another so that you can show your praises to be good stewards of God's grace in all its varieties.

—1 PETER 4:10, VOICE

Meerkats are excellent at teamwork. They take turns doing different jobs to help the group thrive in the desert. Some get food. (They love to eat beetles, spiders, and scorpions.) Some watch the baby meerkats and keep them safe. (These meerkats may not eat until it's their time to hunt.) And one or more act as lookouts and warn the others of danger. Meerkats also team up to dig burrows, where they can hide from predators. By working together, the meerkat group grows stronger. Everyone joins in, and every job is needed.

In the family of God, each person can do something to strengthen the group. Using the gifts and talents we've received from the Lord, we can serve food, sing songs, teach the Bible, clean up, write encouraging notes, or pray with friends in need. Just like the meerkats switch jobs, we don't always have to do the same thing. But no matter how we help, we can be sure that every job matters as we work together to serve the Lord.

Maybe you've never thought of yourself as part of something bigger. But you are. You're part of the family of God. You're a member of the body of Christ.
